McCalla Raymer Pierce, LLC and Hunt Leibert Jacobson, P.C. Announce the Combining of their Firms to Form McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC

ATLANTA/HARTFORD February 1, 2017 – McCalla Raymer Pierce, LLC and Hunt Leibert Jacobson, P.C. are excited to announce the combining of their firms. The combined entity will be known as McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC and will have offices in Alabama, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, and Mississippi.

“We are extremely excited to announce the combining of Hunt Leibert Jacobson with McCalla Raymer Pierce,” said Richard Leibert, the Hartford firm’s Senior Partner. Marty Stone, Managing Partner at McCalla Raymer Pierce, remarked, “2016 was an exciting year for MRP, and we are thrilled to begin 2017 combining with Hunt Leibert Jacobson. We look forward to another amazing year. The combining of Hunt Leibert Jacobson and McCalla Raymer Pierce has been a very collaborative venture. By fusing tradition with innovation, McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC will raise its service level and success to new heights.” File level operations and staffing in all six states will remain largely unchanged as McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC continues to uphold its commitment to “working the files” in the states where the properties are located.

Hunt Leibert Jacobson’s thirty-one year history and McCalla Raymer Pierce’s combined forty-one year history, made the firms a perfect fit. The two firms have a long history of partnering together. Rich Leibert, Denis Pierce and Stan McCalla, three of the firms’ original principals, were pioneers in the industry including being founding members of the USFN in 1988.

McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC will focus its practice in residential and commercial real estate services including foreclosure, title curative, bankruptcy, eviction, commercial origination and workout transactions, complex litigation, title curative litigation, title insurance (Abstracts and Claims Defense), defensive litigation and closing services (REO and retail).
